

The European Federation of Nursing Regulators

Presentation

Mrs. Dragica Simunec
Executive Board Member

Foundings

- FEPI was founded as a result of increasing mobility of nursing professionals across Europe
- According to article 2 of its statutes: “FEPI is a federation of competent authorities that regulate the nursing profession in Europe and whose function is to protect the citizen.”

- FEPI is not a Trade Union, respects the work of all associations representing the professionals, and seeks to promote and develop dialogue amongst health professionals and all other stakeholder in the field of public health.
- Today, FEPI is the only international organisation representing the regulatory bodies of nursing.

Role and Identity

- What FEPI also provides :

- A European Network for common action in EU policy, interest representation and advocacy for nursing regulation.
- A Platform to exchange information among regulatory bodies and competent authorities for nursing.
- An institutional 'identity' for co-operation in research and policy development projects.

Presidency and Vice-Presidency

- Today the President of FEPI is Prof. Loredana Sasso (IPASVI)
